

4-Session Virtual Learning Community by Invitation Only

The Intersection of assimilation, acculturation and substance use disorder in Latinx communities.

The National Hispanic and Latino Addiction Technology Transfer Center would like to extend a very special invitation to each of the 10 Regional TTCs to send one participant for our 4-session series on The Intersection of assimilation, acculturation and substance use disorder in Latinx communities.

This intimate Virtual Learning Community will be limited to approximately 30 people who are committed to learning more about this topic; who will commit to attending all four sessions; who will commit to actively participate in the dialogue of each session and interact with the fantastic subject matter experts we have confirmed.

The session schedule is as follows:

- Tuesday, September 1, 2020 2:00-3:30PM EST
- Tuesday, September 8, 2020 2:00-3:30PM EST
- Tuesday, September 15, 2020 2:00-3:30PM EST
- Tuesday, September 22, 2020 2:00-3:30PM EST

Each week the series will dive deeper into each one of these topics: 1) Acculturation and Assimilation: Understanding and Unpacking Latinidad; 2) Latino Paradox: Cultural Resilience and Radical Healing 3) SUD Treatment and Recovery: Increasing Equitable Access to Latinx Using the Peer Model and 4) Actionable Steps to Decolonizing Our Work.

We are extremely pleased with having secured four amazing experts to lead each one of these topics and to contribute to the discussion of all the others. All four panelists will be together throughout the entire series.

Our experts are: 1) Dr. Hector Adames; 2) Dr. Lorraine Moya Salas; 3) Javier Alegre and 4) Anna Nelson, LCSW.
