

SAVE THE DATE

Making Mental Health Matter: A 988 Symposium

Wednesday, Jan. 10

9:30 a.m. - 10:45 a.m. at Barkley in the Crossroads

MODERATED BY

Jason Kander,
Mental Health Advocate,
Former Missouri
State Representative

OPENING REMARKS FROM

Quinton Lucas,
Mayor,
Kansas City, Missouri

PANELISTS

Dr. Kristin Feedback
CommCare CEO,
988 Crisis & Suicide Lifeline

Shannon Moss
Clinical Director,
ReDiscover

Ryan Maid
Senior Director of Behavioral
Science, Kansas City Royals

Sgt. Ashley McCunniff, KCPD
Crisis Intervention
Team Supervisor, Missouri
Dept. of Mental Health

Emily Snow
Senior Administrative
Director of Behavioral Health,
Children's Mercy Hospital

Join us for a critical and engaging conversation with local changemakers to discuss the impact of the mental health crisis in Missouri and learn what is being done to better support our residents now and in the future.

Barkley, 1740 Main St., Kansas City, MO 64108

Parking is available in the parking garage attached to Barkley at 1700 Main St., Kansas City, MO 64108

RSVP to 988@barkleyus.com

Reserve your seat by Monday, Jan. 8