

Introduction to the Prevention Core Competencies: For Prevention Professionals

New Course
Available

Available
Online
Anytime

Sign-up
Today

Course Goals

- Provide an overview of prevention science and its application to practice.
- Strengthen the understanding of effective planning and implementation approaches to prevention services.
- Raise awareness about the training and credentialing needs for the field, and
- Encourage the pursuit of more specialized training.

This course will only scratch the surface of the knowledge needed to practice effectively as a prevention provider. We hope this course is one of many you will take throughout your career.